Dr. Lockwood, Sunday night delivered an interesting lecture in behalf of the American Bible Society. He raised over $40 as a donation.

In spite of a few clouds at the convention, we find that almost every kick has been discovered that we more excited than reasonable.

Street talk now is that some "good" democrat will be nominated on the republican ticket for representative or county attorney, or both.

Will Berrymann, left Sunday for Dodge City to see his mother. J. W. Berrymann, of Elk City, is assuming his position at the Citizens bank.

The meeting at Forest City on Thursday evening last, addressed by Ellis and Landis, was one of the good old sort. Everybody knows what that is in Forest City.

The unusual attendance and interest of the ladies in the work of the convention, is the best argument in favor of woman's suffrage, that has been seen for some time.

Druggists say it is a pleasure to sell Beggs' Family Medicines, as every bottle is warranted for all that the label calls for, so our customers are perfectly safe in buying them. Sold and warranted by J. R. Young and J. D. Karr.

Dr. Walling, of Caldwell, made us a pleasant call Monday. He departed on the morning train for Sharon. He delivered two speeches in Attea, Saturday. He says there are any amount of republicans in Caldwell who will vote for Lawelling and Jerry.

Mr. Would-be-congressman, was seen in company with a certain banker and a certain doctor of Medicine Lodge and other good democrats at Attea the other day, canvassing how to beat the calumny howlers. They all seemed of the same political complexion.

There is strong talk of James B. Eby for deputy treasurer. Mr. Potes not being very well acquainted with the various applicants, has left the matter to a good committee of his bondsmen. These men are very much inclined to look at the matter from a purely business standpoint regardless of politics, which is right.

The Equal Suffrage Association held their regular meeting last Saturday. Several interesting papers were read on Woman Suffrage. The association will give an entertainment Tuesday evening, August 23rd, at the court house. A number of young ladies will take part in a contest for prizes will be awarded. Admission 10 cents. A large attendance is desired.

The old soldiers' procession as they departed for Wichita was quite like the one at Emporia, last week. The procession, Doc Ayers seconded with quilt and shawl strap in true soldier fashion. Hessler bore the flag, Fleming beat the drum, and Uncle Jimmie Anderson acted as rear or corporal's guard, we forgot which; anyhow the boys appeared ready to charge on Wichita for a good time and a few days' reminiscence of the joys and sorrows of camp life.

IT'S A WINNER!

The report on order of business was adopted as follows:

1st, election of probate judge; 2nd, superintendent of public instruction; 3rd, county attorney; 4th, district clerk; 5th, representative.

The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted as follows:

RESOLVED, the delegates of Barber county convention assembled:

1st.—That we heartily endorse the platform adopted at Omaha and Wichita, and shall labor for the success of those principles.

2nd.—That we heartily endorse the actions of our congressmen from the Big Seventh, Hon. Jerry Simpson. We believe that by his honest, disinterested and unselfish labors, a true representative of the people, whose every vote will be cast for the benefit of the people, will be elected to the office of congressman.

3rd.—That the people's party is emphatically the labor man's party and we sympathize with organized labor in its efforts to better its condition.

4th.—That we demand a constitutional amendment submitting the question of suffrage to a vote of the people.

RESOLVED, That we favor the furnishing of text books to the patrons of our public schools by the state free of charge.

RESOLVED, That we demand the abolition of office fees and favor free salaries for all of our public officers with rewards for efficient services in private business avocations.

RESOLVED, That we denounce the employment of convict labor in competition with the honest and law abiding citizen, and that we favor the construction of a system of public roads by the state and the utilization of convict labor in the state in preparing the material for and in the construction of such roads.

RESOLVED, That we demand equal pay for equal work regardless of the sex of the worker.

RESOLVED, That this convention shall not in any way give credit and intelligence to any man who can make an aggressive campaign, men whom all can cheerfully support and commend to the voters of Barber county.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED.

H. G. WALTERS, Chairman.

O. H. DUNBAR, J. P. RENFREW.

Nominations for probate judge were made as follows:

C. J. Skeen, Judge Stevens, Wm. Weaslet and L. M. Presnal.
